Completion Of Citys Water Projects Assured When SERA Approves Proposal

Work To Begin Tuesday With Two Months' Employment Ahead

The SERA yesterday gave final approval to the City's plans for completion of the spreading grounds, flood control and water conservation system. City Manager Al S. Myers secured assurance the work will recommence next Tuesday where it was abandoned last May when the CWA was discontinued. Under the new State unemployment relief setup, the entire authority for deciding need of work applicants and hiring men is vested in the central SERA office. In consequence men employed on the local project will be chosen from among those registered on the county relief rolls, and preference will probably not be given local unemployed.

"Approval of our project by the SERA means," Mr. Myers said, "that Sierra Madre's water worries are definitely at an end. We shall be able to handle any heavy runoff that may eventuate this winter, and the increased spreading facilities will soon bring the wells up to a point where it will be necessary to use the pumps."

A total of $4,859 will be put into circulation by the project, and 27 men will be furnished with 50 working days. Specifications call for employment of 22 unskilled and seven skilled men, the wage scale varying from 50 cents to $1.25 per hour. The SERA is to furnish $3,787 for labor, while the city pays $1,072 for materials and supplies. Complete plans, approved at Wednesday night's Council meeting, were forwarded to Frank Y. McLaughlin, director general of the Los Angeles SERA offices, and approval was sent back immediately.

Work is to be done on 13 lateral head gates to regulate the flow of water in the main ditches, excavation will be finished on the No. 4 basin, the stone walls on Grand View and Central avenue boundaries will be completed, six hundred feet of main ditch lines remain to be dug, and a number of foot bridges must be constructed over ditches for use in operating the grounds in time of flood.

Explaining the operation of the 23 acre grounds, Mr. Myers said: "The waters to be spread first enter a desilting basin, which, as its name applies, is designed to allow the material carried in suspension to settle before the water is diverted into the various ditches and basins for the purpose of spreading. "After leaving the desilting basin, the water is carried through a system of ditches in which, at frequent intervals, are constructed check dams and also a number of corrugated pipe outlet gates. "The water passing through these outlets is allowed to flow slowly over a large area of ground as possible in order that it may sink into the soil. The excess from the ditches is carried into a series of basins where it is allowed to percolate into the ground. It then seeps into the wells, being guided and retained by the underground dikes and rock stratas."

Highways In Nearby Hills Recommended

State Urged To Provide Them As A Means Of Controlling Fire

Stressing the point that the Angeles Crest Highway again proved its firebreak effectiveness by stopping the recent 3200-acre Arroyo Seco brush fire from spreading west, the Automobile Club of Southern California sent a communication yesterday to Earl Lee Kelly, State director of public works, advocating the early continuation of this highway into the back-country.

The recommendation urged that substantial funds be provided in the forthcoming budget for continuing the highway eastward from the Red Box Divide, immediately back of Sierra Madre, to form a backbone for a forest protection road system.

"Had this fire spread into the densely-covered area west of the present 10-mile section of Angeles Crest Highway the loss to the watershed would have been incalculable," the statement says. "The area west of the road drains principally into and through a heavily-populated region where adequate flood control works have not yet been constructed. A potential hazard and loss of life and property to which this region would have been subjected had the Arroyo Seco fire spread west "can only be measured in terms of the tragedy of last New Year's Day. The completed section of Angeles Crest Highway has saved many times its cost in preventing loss of watershed covering," it was stated.

"Angeles Crest Highway and the Arroyo Seco road were two major factors in stemming this disastrous blaze," declared William V. Mendenhall, supervisor of Angeles National Forest. "Angeles Crest Highway was a vital help in permitting transportation of men and water in hose trucks to fight it. The fire did not cross Angeles Crest Highway in a single place, although it reached it in several sections."

Another Free Swim For The Youngsters

Tomorrow is Kiwanis Swim Day again for the town's kids at the Sierra Madre plunge. Weather prophets say it'll be a warm day and the fresh mountain water in the pool will feel mighty fine. Tickets may be secured at Middough's Drugstore by all children on the Kiwanis lists.

KIWANIS CLUB PRYS INTO HOUSEKEEPING SECRETS OF THE OLD BOX LUNCHEON RUSE

TUESDAY night was Ladies' Night at the Kiwanis Club, and instead of the usual dinner meeting the affair was conducted as an old-fashioned box-lunch sociable. The exceptionally large gathering of Kiwanians and their wives attested to the popularity of the novelty. Mrs. John Spoelstra was awarded first prize for having the best decorated box of the evening, and William Middough, Kiwanis president, was credited with the most unique conduct. He defaulted his bridge playing award by failing to turn in his score—and in consequence Art Morse gained Booby Prize for having the lowest tally. The door prize, consisting of a box of groceries donated by the Safeway Stores, was won by Mrs. John Woehler. Sid Ellery was high point man in contract play, and Mrs. E. G. Everett won the distinction for women. In auc-

Offer Reward For Arrest Of Thieves In Big Santa Anita

A most unusual August thunder shower and one or more 'car strippers' combined to make Henry Olsen's weekend jaunt to his cabin in the Big Santa Anita a dismal failure.

Sunday Olsen was informed at his cabin by a ranger that his car had been stripped of four tires, and the gas tank drained of gasoline. But when he got to First Water Camp he heard that the car in question was covered by a tarpaulin—and his he had left in the open. So he started up the trail to Chantry Flats without phoning to Sierra Madre for a tow car.

At the Flats, much to his chagrin, he found that the car, the missing tires, the vanished gas (but not the tarp) were his. He walked down the road to town—in the rain.

The theft of Olsen's tires, as well as the great majority of all thefts of gasoline and accessories in the past, occurred at the lower parking place. A guard is maintained by the Corum Stables at the upper flats, at the end of the road a half mile above the old trail, and Mrs. Corum has posted a sign at the lower flats advising motorists to park further up the road where proper and safer facilities are furnished.

A reward of $25 is offered for information leading to the arrest of anyone stealing any article from or off of any parked car on the upper flats.

Man's Great Quest Of The Ages Told Forum By Dean Bode

Defending social progress simply as the basic Christian principle of finding 'better ways of living together,' Dean Arnold G. Bode told the Sierra Madre Forum Tuesday night that for five thousand years the great objective of mankind has been incorporated in the search for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Contributing to these elemental estates, he said, there have always been fellowship, beauty, joy, peace and security.

Mrs. A. F. Snell reviewed "The Modern Corporation and Private Property," while Ray O. Caukin defined social trends of the American Legion. He touched on the four point program of that organization, which deals with child labor, old age pensions, and labor betterment. Mr. Caukin also presented a symposium on "Basic Principles of Social Progress."

Dr. Webster Vannier spoke on the philosophy of James Dewey, stating that Dewey's position indicated an absence of any fundamental and enduring principle. The speaker interpreted the theory that principles and policies were developed according to time, place and circumstance. Closing the meeting, President Victor O. Schmidt adjourned the Forum Society until October, when a series of studies of state and county election measures will be featured.

Council To Continue Tax Rate Of $2.40 As Budget For 1934-35 Is Adopted

Revenues Cut By Assessment Shrinkage But Old Levy Will Stand

Sierra Madre's tax rate will remain at $2.40 per $100 of assessed valuation during the next fiscal year under a tax levy and appropriation ordinance passed on first reading by the City Council on Wednesday evening. The appropriation ordinance embodies the budget prepared by the Council which, with this year's reduction in assessed valuations, calls for the expenditure of $3,005 less than for the year 1933-34.

On the new assessed valuations the tax levy is calculated to yield $56,388.93 to cover all of the city's expenses, excepting, of course, the school tax and the county tax, neither of which has been fixed.

The tax levy for all city purposes remains as it was last year—$1.00 for general fund which pays for police, fire, garbage and rubbish collections, lights, street maintenance, salaries and upkeep of the various city properties; 17 cents for operation of the library; 13 cents for the park and $1.10 to meet the sinking fund and interest requirements of the city's past bond issues.

There will be a special meeting of the Council next Monday evening when the ordinance will come up for final passage. City Clerk Waverly E. Pratt presented a financial statement of the city's expenditures and income for the fiscal year 1933-34 which will be found in its entirety on page eight of this issue of the SIERRA MADRE NEWS.

Expect City Will Break Vote Record

Interest In Tuesday's Primary Election Reaches High Pitch Here

Candidates for about every office to be filled in California this year, from the governorship down, flocked into Sierra Madre this week. There were enough of them at a "get out the vote" dinner at the Woman's Club last night to make up a little convention all of their own. Their combined activities here during the closing days of the campaign, the opening of headquarters by the Republicans and the George Creel, Democratic forces, presages a big turnout at next Tuesday's primary election.

On the heels of various candidates for the judiciary, justice of the Pasadena township court and various county officers, John R. Quinn, candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, blew into the city like a carnival late Tuesday afternoon. He was preceded by a truck equipped with a loud speaker and a leather lunged orator. It toured the city and gave notice that the citizenry might meet Quinn at the City Hall.

When Quinn and his retinue arrived later they found a group of candidates, some city officials, a few citizens and a few city employees. Apparently Sierra Madre wasn't all wrought up, but there is plenty of interest in the campaign underneath.

It is the general belief that Governor Merriam will run away with the Republican gubernatorial vote here and that there will be a close vote between George Creel and Sinclair for the Democratic nomination. The writer believes Sinclair will win over Creel in the city and decisively, though it is reported by unbiased sources throughout the State that Creel has gained tremendously over the Socialist during the last 10 days as a wave of resentment has flared up among the long time Democrats over the raiding of their party.

With a candidate of its own for County Supervisor in the person of Al S. Myers, City Business manager, there is much interest in the contest for County Supervisor and it is conceded that Myers will lead the ticket for this nomination in Sierra Madre. There are 15 candidates for Supervisor in this district, with little doubt but that the battle will be fought out at the November election. Supervisor Hugh A. Thatcher is conceded one of the two places. Opinion differs as to who his opponent in the run-off will be.

Various local committees interested in the several candidates for the two places in the Pasadena township justice of the peace court have done much to stir up interest in the primary battle, while more than a score of candidates for the Superior court have been here in the last ten days interesting friends in their behalf, large committees having been formed to advance the interests of Judges Myron Westover, Robert Walker Kenney, Lucius P. Green, and others.

There is even a hard fight for places on the Democratic county central committee in this, the 48th Assembly district, Sierra Madre having six candidates for the seven places allotted the entire district, which includes besides Sierra Madre, La Cañada, Lamanda Park and La Cienega. The Democrats also have a battle over the Assembly nomination between the real Democrats and the Sinclair following. These contests are expected to bring to the polls every last person registered as Democrats, which includes about everyone heretofore registered as a Socialist.

Assemblyman Frank G. Martin is unopposed for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman and there is no contest for the seven places on the GOP county central committee from this district. But there is enough interest in the primary to warrant the belief that Sierra Madre will poll the biggest vote in her history.

MERRIAM OVERWHELMING CHOICE OF THE SOUTHLANDS NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS

Vast Majority Of Editors Believe Him Capable Of Greatest Service To State

WHEN his figures were released on Tuesday by Tobias Larson, publisher of the Claremont Courier, 84 out of

Editors' Choice

121 country newspaper publishers heard from in nine Southern California counties had published their support of Governor Frank F. Merriam for governor.

More complete returns from a canvass made by a committee of publishers headed by Mr. Larson yesterday revealed the fact that 121, or exactly half of the country press in Santa Barbara, Inyo, Ventura, Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Riverside, Orange, San Diego and Imperial counties is actively sponsoring Governor Merriam and that 62, while not editorially urging his election, believed him the best qualified of all candidates. Of the other replies 39 were neutral or their views unobtainable. The remaining editors and publishers were divided in their opinion as to the best man for the governorship among all the other candidates of all the parties.

Mr. Larson's committee addressed a post card to each publisher asking that he indicate the candidate that he believed competent of rendering the greatest service to the State. At noon on Tuesday the committee compiled the result. Only two had signified their intention of supporting John R. Quinn and his name was omitted from the tabulation sent out at that time. This tabulation, by counties, follows:

Car Topples Over Alta Vista Drive When Engine Fails To Respond

Losing control of his car Sunday morning in attempting to shift gears near the crest of the steep grade on Alta Vista Drive, off Sturtevant Road, John Berg, 70 year-old San Pedro man, was fatally injured when the automobile slipped backward and somersaulted over the bank.

Berg was nearly at the gate of the Joseph P. Nash estate at 551 Alta Vista, when the accident occurred. He was en route to the Nash residence for a friendly visit. Officer Loren Shoemaker summoned Dr. M. H. A. Peterson to the scene of the mishap, and Berg was rushed to St. Luke's Hospital where he died late the same day. He suffered from a basal skull fracture, cerebral hemorrhage and punctured lung.

The car toppled more than 40 feet off the roadway, and apparently faulty brakes failed to function properly when the engine stalled as Berg tried to shift from high gear into second.

Double Birthdays To Be Celebrated By Four Families

Merriam Not 'Acting' But Real Governor Authority Insists

Frank F. Merriam is governor of California, not "acting governor," according to Charles A. The Sacramento Bee (July 23), among many others, answers as follows: "The attorney general has ruled that under the

Would Insure Men Against Idle Days Werner Pledges

Erwin P. Werner, of Glendora, candidate for the State senate, visited Sierra Madre on Wednesday, in company with Mrs. Werner, to confer with his local sponsors. He expressed elation upon receiving very favorable reports from the members of the strong organization promoted here to back his candidacy.

Discussing his platform Mr. Werner said he would support legislation to end secret paroles and would present a bill to establish a prison for first offenders. He is for employment insurance, and adequate provision for the aged and indigent; for elimination of the many duplicating and unnecessary bureaus in local government and against the growing tendency toward interference by the government with the business of the small merchant. When city attorney of Los Angeles, Mr. Werner won a permanent reduction in gas rates and a four million refund to gas consumers. At his insistence the legislature amended the special assessment laws eliminating many inequities to the benefit of the property owners.

CONGRESSMAN EVANS WINS ENDORSEMENT

The United Church Service Bureau of Los Angeles County this week endorsed the candidacy of Congressman W. E. Evans for re-election. The California State Federation of Labor, the Civic Research League, the American-Hungarian Citizens Club of Los Angeles, the Central Labor Council of Los Angeles, Federated Voters of Los Angeles Amusement Organizations, Latin-American Voters League, and the Women's Political League are among the many organizations that have notified Congressman Evans of their endorsement.

constitution of California, the lieutenant-governor becomes merely acting governor, although exercising all the prerogatives of that office."

Mr. Son said yesterday, "The incumbent is 36 years out-of-date, and wrong. Since 1898 the pertinent words of succession in the constitution of California have been identical with those in the constitution of the United States, and in addition the constitution of California says that he in whom the supreme executive power of this State is vested shall be styled the Governor of the State of California."

"The present attorney general's ruling is a cheap political trick evidencing an unfriendly attitude toward Governor Merriam, and is only made possible by the fact that there is no compilation and publication of the opinions of California's attorney general. These opinions should be in writing and made available to all interested public officials and to the legal profession."

Recommend Capable Officials to Voters

We believe that when a public official has proved that he is efficient, conscientious, honest and has done his best for the people who elected him, these people put money into their own pockets by returning him to office. We believe that an incumbent who has performed his duties faithfully and well is the safest man for that job again.

We, the taxpayers, the stock holders in public business, cannot afford in times like these, to change tested and proven officials for those whose qualities are not proven . . . It costs too much.

Therefore, we urge all Republicans to vote next Tuesday for the following incumbents who have served them loyally and well:

W. E. EVANS, CONGRESSMAN	X
FRANK G. MARTIN, ASSEMBLYMAN	X
RAY RILEY, STATE CONTROLLER	X
H. G. CATTELL, BOARD OF EQUALIZATION	X

Also we call attention to the fact that Al S. Myers, Business Manager of Sierra Madre, is a candidate for Supervisor in this District. He has fully demonstrated his ability to acceptably fill this office by economically and efficiently directing our city affairs and we firmly believe that there is great need of such ability in the handling of the county's business.

This Is GOP White Spot Assemblyman Martin Points Out

Urging that Republicans of the Forty-eighth Assembly District poll a very large and representative vote for the Republican candidates in the primary election next Tuesday, Assemblyman Frank G. Martin, of Altadena, who is unopposed for the Republican nomination for State Assemblyman, says that voters of Republican faith will do well to show enough zeal for the party to poll a heavy vote in the primary, which should have good psychological effect for the party and its candidates in this area in the November election.

"This is the Republican 'white spot' in Los Angeles County; let's keep the Forty-eighth Assembly district away out front as the banner Republican Assembly district in the county," is Mr. Martin's closing message to Republicans before the primary.

Martin, resident of Altadena, is a Republican candidate for re-nomination and re-election to the State Assembly from this District. He was born in Meigs County, Ohio, attended West Virginia College and took university extension work in Ohio University. He taught school for three years and then entered journalism as his life work. He began his newspaper work in Ohio and for many years held important positions on the editorial staff of the Chattanooga Times, Chattanooga, Tennessee, and the Philadelphia Public Ledger. He came to Altadena in 1904 and has been a continuous resident for 37 years of the area now comprising the Forty-eighth Assembly District.

He is the first Assemblyman from the new Forty-eighth Assembly District and was elected in 1932 by a substantial majority over his Democratic opponent.

Speaker Walter J. Little, without solicitation from Mr. Martin, appointed him chairman or member of many of the most important committees and he was highly praised for his important work as a member of the Ways and Means committee.

COMMUNITY LEADERS SUPPORT MAXWELL

Roland Maxwell, prominent young attorney of Pasadena who seeks election to the office of Justice of the Peace in this township, is being actively supported by community leaders here and throughout the district.

For the past 12 years Mr. Maxwell has been practicing law in this vicinity, being a member of Tickner and Maxwell. During this time he has taken a lead in civic and church affairs. He is a past president of the Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce. Last year he was awarded a medal for being Pasadena's most valuable young man. A partial list of Mr. Maxwell's endorsers will be found in another part of this paper.

PEDGES REFORM IN IMPORTANT OFFICE

Charles A. Son, candidate for the Republican nomination as attorney general and reputed one of the State's most brilliant constitutional lawyers, has pledged himself to end the alleged private practice of law by the Attorney General's staff, a system which he says is costing the taxpayers an unnecessary $100,000 a year.

If it so comes to pass that Whitney's star amble, and other classy nags such as Cavalcade, unite to shove the local young derby off to a big money start, sport scribbling here will assume a bit of the old pepper and punch. Or anyhow the possibilities will be on hand.

'Hub' Freeman, Aged Paralytic, Stricken With Bronchitis

Edwin (Hub) Freeman, 83, one of Sierra Madre's oldest residents, was taken to the Los Angeles Hospital Sunday suffering from acute bronchitis. Mr. Freeman, who has been confined to his home with paralysis for a number of years, lives at 152 North Mt. Trail.

Since he retired from his extensive printing business in Los Angeles nearly thirty years ago, when he was incapacitated by a paralytic stroke, Mr. Freeman has lived here and is known to many old time residents. His condition is reported as favorable.

Pasadena Women To Meet With Economic Study Group Here

Sierra Madre and Pasadena members of the Women's Economic Study Groups will meet together Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the City Park to join in a final discussion of the candidates appearing on the primary ballot.

Brief statements of the candidates for governor will be reviewed, and women are invited to bring their sample ballots, lunches and sewing.

C. E. Woodside, former director of the bond department of the Citizens National Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles will speak on utilities' revenues.

CONTROLLER RILEY WINS ENDORSEMENTS

Ray L. Riley, candidate for re-election as State Controller, has received the unanimous endorsement of the Alliance of Retail Trade Association's, the Retail Grocers and Merchants' Association, the Northern Retail Druggists' Association, the California Retail Hardware Association, the Allied Automotive Industries of California and the Diogenes Club, according to announcement of his campaign committee. The Democratic Central Committee of San Diego County endorsed the candidacy of Controller Riley, August 16. Many Los Angeles Democrats including Mattison B. Jones, Isadore Dockweiler, Dwight Stephenson, Jefferson P. Chardler, Zack Lamar Cobb, have also added their endorsements.

LETTERS From Readers

BRANDS SINCLAIR AS A BOOK PEDDLER

To the Editor of the

Sierra Madre News:
Back in 1905 the New York World assigned me to go to Englewood, N.J., to interview Upton Sinclair on the subject of a Community Home idea he had installed in the midst of New York's most fashionable suburb. Surrounded by a score or more of jobless men and women, all trying to make the grade in the so-called arts, Sinclair planned to show the world that life's secret of success called for a common feedback, provided out of a common wallet. He soon tired of supplying the feedback and wallet, but the idea advertised his book. It was his first Epic child and died aborning.

As a reporter and editor I had opportunity to keep in touch with Sinclair's career. Nearly every year he bobbed up in hand with some sort of ism, content if the newspapers spelled his name correctly. The facility with which he climbed on or off the current band wagon, stamped him as a "publicity hound." He gave birth to many Epic children, but none survived their swaddling clothes.

Now he is a candidate for Governor of California. What kind of a Governor would he make? If he appealed to the people for a fiddle would their votes make him a Kreidler? If he appealed to the people for a pallet and brush would their votes make him a Rembrandt? Is he a Democrat? Does a loophole in the California law, that enabled him to file under the Democratic banner, make him a Democrat? Why didn't he have the courage to run as a Socialist, after 30 years of attachment to that party? He is an interloper, repudiated by his former bedfellows Socialists, scorned by all real Roosevelt Democrats, afraid to unfurl his true colors because his piratical methods would call for a cross of bones.

Honors Awarded Seven Members Of The Children's Dramatic Guild

"THE MAGIC KEY" which was presented in the City Hall last Saturday evening by the Children's Dramatic Guild of Sierra Madre was a great success. The hall was full to overflowing. Unfortunately there is no auditorium available for a work such as this which is not only educational but of civic value.

It is the custom of the Guild to award honor stars to children who do outstanding dramatic work. The judges for this occasion were Mrs. Fred Griebenow, Miss Hazel Miller and Miss Isabel Bodden, of Milwaukee. The following children received honors: Anna Sue Adwell, Betty Lou Tracy, Mary Lou Lovejoy, Marjorie Griffith, Norma Hogan, Grace Jensen and Lois Pickett.

The director especially commended Lois Pickett for her fine characterization of Pinocchio. The play will be repeated tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock in the public library. Children wishing to attend must apply to Miss Lulu Moore or Mrs. Addis, at the library.

A third presentation will be given in the Gold Shell Memorial Park in Pasadena, September 2, at 3:15. The public is cordially invited. Following this production there will be a between-play recess of six days, the Guild meeting as usual on Saturday, September 8th.

Then will come try-outs for the next play, "The Mysterious Princess." Any child wishing to become a member of the Guild must apply at the regular Saturday meeting.

In A Social Way

MISS Evelyn Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Becker, of Monrovia, became the bride of Kenneth R. Dyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Dyer, of Monrovia, at a simple ceremony at the home of the bride on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. The wedding service was read by Judge John A. H. Sturgeon.

The bride wore her going away outfit, a navy blue ensemble with white felt picture hat and a corsage of white gardenias with maiden hair fern. She was attended by her sister, Miss Irene Becker, who wore a navy blue "Butcher Boy" ensemble with navy blue picture hat and a corsage of yellow roses. Russell Dyer, brother of the groom, served as best man.

The wedding party assembled at the home of the bridegroom's parents immediately following the ceremony for a wedding breakfast. At 6:30 o'clock in the evening the wedding dinner was held at the home of the bride's parents. Only immediate members of the families were present.

An immense wedding cake with miniature bride and groom, claimed the center of the table, which was artistically decorated with chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern. Tiny white roses with cards attached marked the places. White tapers tied with silver tulle added to the beauty of the decorations. The dinner party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dyer, Miss Irene Becker, Harvey Becker, Arthur Backer and the bride and groom.

The young couple left during the dinner for a two weeks' honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead. They will reside in Tolleson, Ariz., where Mr. Dyer teaches. Mr. Dyer graduated from Arizona State Teachers' college. The bride attended Monrovia High School, and has been employed at the Wistaria Beauty Shop here for the past five years.

A shower, honoring Mrs. Stanley Mills, of Arcadia, was given on Tuesday by Miss Helen King's Bible class at the home of Mrs. A. E. O'Banion, 337 Camillo street. The party was held in the patio, where luncheon was served. Mrs. Mills was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Twenty-two ladies were present.

Mrs. C. J. Pegler and Miss Edna Green gave a delightful lawn party last Thursday for Mrs. Laura Stevenson and Mrs. M. D. Kneeland. A number of the guests were some of the old time residents and enjoyed conversation.

YOUNGSTERS OVER 70

The annual picnic reunion for all people from all states and countries who are over 70 years old will be held all day Saturday, September 1, in Sycamore Grove Park. A special call goes to all who are over 100 and to those over 90. They are all to go to the platform for the program hour.

LOCAL CCC WORKER WINS

sher and the honored guests, Mrs. Johnson and Miss Blaisdell.

Mrs. John H. Robertson, of 371 Adams street, attended a luncheon at the Women's Athletic Club, Los Angeles, on Saturday, in honor of Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, general federation president of Women's Clubs, from Washington, D.C. Miss Josephine Seaman, state president, gave the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren O. Preston and family, of 503 West Montecito avenue, have returned from two weeks at Jackson Lake at Big Pine. They left yesterday for another week's vacation at Balboa.

A lovely picnic dinner was enjoyed last Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Laura Chene, 429 Sturtevant Drive. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Runkle and daughters, Janet and Jean, of Columbus, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Runkle, of Beverly Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Elmore, of Pasadena.

A garden party and bridge luncheon was held yesterday afternoon at the Albright home, 252 East Grand View avenue, with Mrs. Albright and Mrs. L. Bartel, as hostesses. The affair was given as a benefit for St. Rita's Altar Society.

Kiwanians Outplayed By Pomonans

Orange Pickers Take 11 To 6 Game Through Errors And Free Hitting

The Kiwanians lost to the Pomona Whyte Lights Tuesday night 11 to 6, in a game marred by the rough and unsportsmanlike conduct of Wright, the visitors' first baseman, who several times nearly precipitated fist-cuffs between members of the two teams.

Ed LaLone did not have his usual steam on the ball, and this fact coupled with poor support in the pinches allowed the Pomonans to score eight runs in the first five frames. Wesley Perry, relieving LaLone in the sixth, was touched up for three runs and four hits.

Bus Brain, most consistent of the locals, hit safely two out of three times up, one slam being good for the circuit. Young also bagged a homer.

An additional game has been put on the Kiwanis Club's schedule next week. There will be a game Monday night, August 27, against the Broadway Department Store, as well as the usual Tuesday and Thursday games here.

Here's the box score of Tuesday's sad affair:

Arcadians Goose Egged By Soldiers

Pratt Returns To Form In The Box And Socks A Homer With Two On

In one of the best ball games of the year the Sierra Madre Legion defeated Arcadia's soldiers last Friday night 5 to 0. Pratt showed his old form for the first time since suffering an attack of appendicitis a month ago and was aided by air tight fielding on the part of the Sierra Madre team.

Pratt also hit a home run with two men on base in the first inning and as it turned out later that was the ball game.

The fielding star of the evening was Granverson, center fielder for Arcadia and former big league player. In the eighth inning he made a running shoe-string catch of Harkness' line drive in deep left center field and again in the ninth backed up to the fence to take Pratt's hard-shot that was labeled for a home run. The score:

Bill Hedley, Earl Marsh, and Ross were out of the game—and in their place appeared Pratt, Gwyn and Gregory. The latter, visiting from Pomona, chucked a good game for the locals. Pratt was in but two innings. The box score:

Hedley, with a .978 average, rightfully tops their records, with Ross on his heels averaging .926 and 147 putouts. The tabulated averages follow:

FORMER OFFICIAL IS GIVEN FOREST JOB

Henry O. Gierlich, for many years Sierra Madre's city engineer, has been appointed as temporary assistant supervisor of the Angeles National Forest. He succeeds A. J. Mueller, who has been assigned to the San Francisco detail as regional forest inspector.

Gierlich, who has been superintendent of the Angeles Crest C.C.C. Camp, will be in charge of construction in the forest area under his new title. He and his immediate superior, Supervisor Mendenhall, devoted a part of this week to a field survey of the Southern California forests.

44 Police Chiefs Endorse Biscailuz For Another Term

Climaxing a vigorous campaign, it was announced yesterday that Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz has been endorsed by more than 200 leading organizations in Los Angeles County.

The announcement came from William May Garland, general chairman for the Sheriff at next Tuesday's primary election.

More than 50 civic and improvement associations and chambers of commerce are included in the long list of endorsements. There are 50 veteran organizations and 20 woman's clubs urging that Biscailuz be retained in office.

Sierra Madre's chief of police, Gordon McMillan, is one of 44 police department heads of Los Angeles county who have signed a petition to the voters urging the nomination and election of Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz at the August primary election.

They pointed out that the various police departments have been greatly aided in a coordinated drive against crime by having available at all times the services of the sheriff's office, particularly the files of the sheriff's record bureau.

chilling is not enough

Doubtlessly, you incorrigible urchin should be properly impressed and utterly crushed by the cool and chilling gaze of Mrs. Sylvester Van De Smythe. Sir Reginald Wigglecoddle would be reduced to a frozen statue by such a frigid and haughty stare, but not this young urchin!

Many a trusting housewife has felt that proper chilling of foods in storage is all that is necessary. Distressing has been her rude awakening, for chilling is but the first step in correct refrigeration. May we expostulate on genuine ICE refrigeration and why it, and it alone, offers every element of scientific refrigeration?

Foods in storage must be given 3-way air-conditioning if they are to be properly preserved. Ice refrigeration first chills, then it purifies by a constantly moving cycle of air passing over the ice.

It also balances the humidity of the air. Anything less than 3-way protection is inadequate. No substitute for ice refrigeration can do more than "chill." Only ice refrigeration can remove gases, odors and other impurities. Only in ice refrigeration can proper humidity (or moisture in the air) be maintained by circulation of pure air, taking moisture from the melting ice and eliminating gases and odors which "taint" the food.

HAVE YOU INSPECTED THE REVOLUTIONARY COOLERATOR

It's positively the talk of Los Angeles. Embodies a new principle of refrigeration that thoroughly chills the air, humidifies it and saves one-third to one-half the ice. Another amazing feature—you can make your own ice cubes in 5 minutes—hundreds can be made if needed—direct from the cake of clear, sparkling ice by using the simple Coolerator Ice Cutter. See the glorious new model Coolerator Ice Refrigerators. Ask for beautifully colored folder showing the new models finished in Dulux, the permanent hard white finish that resists hammer blows. Ask your ice salesman.

IN YOUR GARDEN

GARDEN NOTES
By Jessie Ward Russell

IT IS important now to keep avocado trees well mulched with leaves, straw or manure. Water once a week, being sure that they get enough to soak into the ground deeply.

Chrysanthemums and dahlias should be staked up now.

If you intend to have sweet peas this winter, you should begin now to prepare the ground for them by digging a trench 12 to 16 inches deep and filling in 4 to 6 inches of manure, cover with enough dirt so that the trench is still four to six inches deep. Water and let stand until you are ready to sow seeds—sometime next month.

You can have late zinnias by planting young plants now. Zinnia plants should be pinched back while young to get bushy strong plants.

Roses can be lightly pruned this month. Do not let them become too dry. It is dangerous to let roses rest too much in this heat by withholding water, for the bark and leaves may become seriously burned.

Avocado trees will not burn if they have enough water and the sap is flowing freely.

START NOW TO MAKE COLOR IN THE HOUSE AND GARDEN

For early flowering stocks and snapdragons plant them now and you'll have flowers in November. Later planting will assure a constant succession of cut flowers for the house throughout the winter and spring. Calendulas planted a little later will assure

Prosperity For Growers Seen

Stream-lined, air-conditioned, super-speed trains are rapidly supplanting the old-fashioned, inefficient coaches in the passenger service of American railroads—a reassuring sign that the railroad companies are finally awakening to the challenge of modern competition!

The new mode in railroading may ultimately have tremendous significance for agriculture—if present improvements in passenger service are carried into the freight and express service!

To the California farmer, far removed from his markets, and with transportation costs often exceeding the total cost of producing his crops, a new day of cheaper, faster transportation would spell recovery and profits after years of depression and deficits.

In the California citrus industry, for example, freight bills represent the largest single item in the cost sheet, exceeding the cost of production and far more than surpassing the grower's returns.

Based on last season's figures, according to Paul S. Armstrong, manager of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, it costs 87 cents to produce a box of oranges—without allowance for interest or depreciation. And it cost $1.12 to transport the box to market!

A. L. A. Activities

By Minnie Stinman

SEVENTEEN members of our unit were guests at the installation of officers of American Legion Post 297, on Monday evening at the City Hall. Bert L. Reddick, Commander of the 18th District, as the installing officer, gave the obligation to the new Post Commander Victor Hill; First Vice-Commander Thorne Mathis, Second Vice-Commander O'Grady, Finance officer Graham, Historian Maughman, Chaplain Caukin, Adjutant Norris, Sergeant-at-arms George Smith, and Executive Committeemen Pickett, Goodier, Irvine, Shetler, Holliger and Harvey Steinberger.

District Commander Reddick, Past Commander of Azusa Post, and Ornelia Stinman, President-elect of the Unit, were escorted to seats of honor. Unit members present were Helen Fleming, Edith Woodruff, Florence Jensen, Dollie Hill, Corine Wastun, Hortense Hill, Ornelia Stinman, Bertha Irvine, Lovetta Pratt, Helen Lovejoy, Ida Benjamin, Lucile Johnson, Sylvia Quittner, Lucile Pickett, Ora Olsen, Louise Bobb and Minnie Stinman.

Several who are not members were present, among them being Mrs. Dan Evans, Mrs. Frances Eakman, Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Sorell, Mrs. Lang, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Rose Kiggins, Mrs. Ellery, Mrs. Minnie Johnson, Mrs. Helen Dare, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Welch.

Immediately following the ceremony the meeting adjourned to the cozy Pepper Tree Inn on Sierra Madre avenue for the dance.

Our delegates are returning from the State convention with renewed enthusiasm for the years' work ahead of us. Blanche ## Sportsmanship?

Here's an example of what would-be hunters often do to vital road signs, reports the Automobile Club of Southern California, which erects these motorists' guides in this section of the State. This type of vandalism violates state law.

Buie returned Thursday and Ornelia Stinman on Sunday.

Unit members, be sure to come to the special meeting of Unit 297, August 30, at City Hall, and hear the delegates tell all about the convention. Their reports not only give us information, but furnish inspiration for the tasks that confront us, and courage to overcome all obstacles.

Much to our surprise and dismay, our Fidac doll did not win a prize, although our unshaken opinion is that she should have. This lovely doll was dressed by Sylvia Quittner. She represents a lady-in-waiting at the court of Queen Elizabeth, and carries in one hand the Queen's silk handkerchief and in the other the royal perfume bottle. High heels were just becoming fashionable at the time represented, and the shoes were rather crude, compared to modern foot-gear. Sylvia very carefully studied and worked out the costume, accurate in every detail, with the rich fabrics and beautiful colors, puffed sleeves and ruff, and the cap with its three points fastened with silver buckles. And this doll was the only lady-in-waiting, though there were several Queens.

The Alhambra Drill Team of which the 18th District is so proud, was awarded third place this year, with a grade of 98.1. First place went to Fresno with 98.5, second to Maywood with 98.15. We are still proud of Alhambra Drill Team.

Juniors, don't forget your next meeting will be September 1st. B. present if possible, as election of officers will be held at this meeting.

LOW UPKEEP COST!
The new Ford V-8 is the most economical car to run that Ford has ever built.

HIGH TURN-IN VALUE!
Year after year the record shows that Ford cars retain an unusually great per cent of their original value.

THE Ford V-8 would be a great buy even at a much higher price. It's the only V-8 selling for less than $2500. Ford alone has been able to put a V-8 engine in a low price car.

The first cost of a Ford V-8 is decidedly low. But that saving is only the beginning... Ford V-8 valves seldom need grinding. Carbon removal is virtually eliminated. The new Ford V-8 consumes less gasoline and oil than last year's economical Ford. And Ford V-8 parts cost very little.

In addition, on that distant day your Ford V-8 earns its honorable retirement, you'll find that it has a high trade-in value. The record of years proves it.

Local Workers Are

Give Square Deal

Well known to many residents in this district, William E. Fox, candidate for Justice of the Peace, office No. 2, Pasadena Township, pledged himself to local supporters yesterday to an impartial administration of justice and promised to show mercy to the deserving.

Fox is a graduate of the old Pasadena high school, later worked himself through U.S.C. and Southwestern University, and after securing his law degree went to work in one of the largest law offices in Los Angeles. He established his practice in Pasadena over seven years ago, has made many appearances before the District Court of Appeals and the State Supreme Court, and is now well qualified to hold the position for which he is a candidate. He has received scores of endorsements by organizations and many local citizens.

JUDGE KENNY MEETS
MANY FRIENDS HERE

Superior Judge Robert Walker Kenny visited Sierra Madre this week at the invitation of his friends and sponsors here, and was the center of an enthusiastic levee during his brief stay. Although the youngest man on the Superior court bench he has gained fame far beyond Los Angeles county for his Solomon-like decisions in the domestic relations court, where he is sitting at present. He will be remembered as the judge who put the human touch into the proceedings of the Los Angeles small claims court. His outstanding accomplishment in reorganizing that court led the late Governor Rolph to promote him to the Superior bench.

Judge Kenny is candidate for election to Office 15 in the primary next Tuesday, and his friends here have been very active in his behalf.

Urge Calling Legislature
Into SessionAssembly Committee Recommends
Action For Unemployment Relief

Frank G. Martin, chairman of the special legislative committee to determine if conditions warrant calling of a special session of the legislature, reported this week that Los Angeles county will require $2,000,000 each month, on and after September 1, 1934, over and above allocation of Federal funds, to provide for unemployment relief. The committee urges that Governor Merriam call a special session at the earliest possible date.

According to Assemblyman Martin, in his report made to Assemblyman Cobb, chairman of the Los Angeles delegation, the special committee considered only facts presented by the County Supervisors and county fiscal and welfare officials. No attempt, he says, was made to determine whether or not the county authorities have exercised good management and proper economy in formulating the county budget for 1934-35. It was disclosed that on September 1st there will be slightly more than $1,000,000 available from county sources for unemployment relief.

At the hearing County Auditor Payne declared that the State has done nothing from its funds to give unemployment relief, that the Los Angeles county pro rate of the $20,000,000 bond issue last year was only a loan, which must be paid from gasoline tax funds. It was said that the Federal government will not do much for unemployment relief in California, unless the State itself does something. Payne suggested a State bond issue of $48,000,000 to cover needs for the next two years, but the committee made no recommendation in this matter.

In the report the committee "urges and insists that the present process of cruelly humiliating and pauperizing unemployed persons who seek to apply for S.E.R.A. work will be absolutely prohibited, and that such stigmatizing of self-respecting Americans whose only offense is their lack of employment through no fault of their own, should be wholly removed by suitable enactment of the Legislature."

The legislative committee consisted of Chairman Martin, Fred M. Roberts, Herbert S. Hallner, Willard E. Badham, James B. Utt, Clare Woolwine and C. Don Field.

ROLAND MAXWELL
MEETS SUPPORTERS

Roland Maxwell, Pasadena attorney and candidate for justice of the peace, office No. 1, was in Sierra Madre this week. He is past president of the Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce, and at one time was president of the state organization. He has been active in both civic and church affairs. Recently he was elected president of the Council of Social Agencies, and previous to that was president of the Pasadena Board of Religious Education. He is head of the Methodist Hospital of Southern California, and vice president of the Y. M. C. A. While here, in conference with his local supporters, he expressed confidence in the progress of his campaign elsewhere in the district and the work being done in his interest here.

Supervisors Hold
Cash Dole System
Is Too Expensive

Pointing out that the trial of the cash dole in Pomona cost the county $9000 extra per month, the Board of Supervisors Monday expressed the opinion that this type of dole would be too expensive to ever replace the present county system of food basket and rent guaranty. Supervisor Harry Blain declared the cash dole would cost an additional $3,000,000 annually if adopted throughout the county.

MONROVIA MASONS TO REPEAT ANNUAL FEAST
Masons of Southern California will gather in large numbers in Monrovia at 6 p.m., Friday, September 7, the occasion being the twelfth annual Beefsteak Feed for members of the order. One thousand T-bone steaks will be grilled over outdoor fires and served at tables on the grounds of the Masonic Temple.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys
WITH the return of the Chief and the Secretary, the meeting tonight ought to be more natural. Bill says he had a great time on his trip. He visited Don Hosford at Lake Tahoe and from there he sped on to more northerly territory. Joe Swanson had some great experiences while fishing for seals, according to his story, which is very interesting. The most interesting part of his tale is the part in which he tells how he fell overboard and was caught in the net with a lot of other seals. That's the way he tells it, so if he wants to call himself a seal, it must be all right. All that kept Joe from becoming part of one of the seals, was the fact that he was near the boat where some of the fishermen could reach him before the seals did.

The friends Swanson visited catch the animals for circuses and others that have use for them. For other information on this inquiry of our illustrious secretary.

It is expected that when we meet tonight that much will be heard from the committee on the big parade to be held in Pasadena during the fire chiefs' convention there. If the weather gets too cool, the program may be changed from nudist firemen to Eskimo. This can be done on short notice. Some of the boys were over to see the Pasadena firemen and from their report.

A big hound dog that is becoming a town pet has been a source of great worry to the Hibbs family. This dog has been visiting many families of Sierra Madre and the police department has had many calls from him, but by all appearances "Buck" must prefer the treatment he gets at the Hibbs household. Three different times he has called on the noted fireman and three different times the good fireman or a member of his family have called the police department.

Plan Tennis Round Robin On The Local Courts This Fall

Another Sierra Madre tennis round-robin, including both upper and lower brackets, may be held on the public courts late this summer or in the fall, if interest is shown by local players.

Emile Smith, head of the Tennis Association here, and the sport desk of THE NEWS, will receive any word from players who are interested in promoting the round-robin. Communications will also be taken from any men players wishing to qualify for the two spots still open on the tennis team, which represents the city in tournament play. At present there are eight regulars, including Louis Fuller, Emile Smith, Homer Tuttle, Randolph Wood, Hiro Kaya, Wes and Wayne Perry and Bill Hansen.

FINE TRIBUTE PAID WALTER McEACHERN

One of the most striking documents of the primary campaign made its appearance in Sierra Madre this week through the local committee sponsoring the candidacy of Walter S. McEachern, candidate for office No. 1 of the Pasadena Justice of the Peace court. It is an endorsement of this capable lawyer's candidacy by more than a thousand of his friends and neighbors in Altadena—persons who know him intimately, socially and professionally. The list includes many lawyers, heads of business establishments, officers of the Altadena trade associations, members of the American Legion and Kiwanis Club in both of which he is a member, and churchmen, all attesting to his character, integrity and fitness for the office he seeks.

Sierra Madre Boy Wins Decision In The Squared Arena

In his first public appearance in the amateur ring, Harry Robertson, 18-year-old son of the J. H. Robertsons of 371 Adams street, took a three round decision bout Wednesday night at the Legion Stadium in Burbank.

Entered in the "feaweight" division, boxing at 110 pounds, young Robertson outpointed Mike Orey of Burbank in a preliminary event. He is a student at the Pasadena Junior College and has spent his leisure time this vacation season training for his contest.

LAWYERS ENDORSE J. RUSSELL MORGAN

J. Russell Morton was endorsed this week by 41 members of the Pasadena Bar Association for re-election to office No. 1 of the Pasadena township justice court. The committee directing his campaign in Sierra Madre has been carrying on an aggressive fight. The committee consists of Herbert Ingraham, J. Milton Steinberger, Carlton J. Pegler, William Middough, James N. Hawks, W. W. Murphy, Mrs. C. L. Baird, Mrs. J. M. Steinberger, Mrs. William W. Murphy, H. L. Schunk and W. Gordon McTavish.

LOCAL COMMITTEE FOR LLOYD ROBINSON

A local committee sponsoring the candidacy of Lloyd W. Robinson, Jr., for office No. 1 of the Pasadena Justice of the Peace court, swing into action here this week. The committee of 25 is headed by W. S. Andrews, Tom Tyler and James N. Hawks.

In effort to prevent a concerted action toward a general county tax strike, the Board of Supervisors began a series of conferences this week aimed at holding the 1934-35 tax rate and budget down.

County Auditor H. A. Payne estimated that if the present preliminary budget were to be adopted as final the tax rate would jump from $1.20 per $100 valuation to $1.65. The proposed preliminary total budget calls for expenditures of $62,172,985.63 as compared with $56,835,323.96 last year.

You'll Save
on a FORD V-8
from the day you buy it

LOW FIRST COST!
$505 and up, F.O.B. Detroit.
Ford V-8 prices are at their 1934 low.

LOW UPKEEP COST!
The new Ford V-8 is the most economical car to run that Ford has ever built.

HIGH TURN-IN VALUE!
Year after year the record shows that Ford cars retain an unusually great per cent of their original value.

THE Ford V-8 would be a great buy even at a much higher price. It's the only V-8 selling for less than $2500.
Ford alone has been able to put a V-8 engine in a low price car.

The first cost of a Ford V-8 is decidedly low. But that saving is only the beginning...
Ford V-8 valves seldom need grinding. Carbon removal is virtually eliminated.

The new Ford V-8 consumes less gasoline and oil than last year's economical Ford. And Ford V-8 parts cost very little.
In addition, on that distant day your Ford V-8 earns its honorable retirement, you'll find that it has a high trade-in value. The record of years proves it.

Officials to Voters

We believe that when a public official has proved that he is efficient, conscientious, honest and has done his best for the people who elected him, these people put money into their own pockets by returning him to office. We believe that an incumbent who has performed his duties faithfully and well is the safest man for that job again.

We, the taxpayers, the stock holders in public business, cannot afford in times like these, to change tested and proven officials for those whose qualities are not proven . . . It costs too much.

Therefore, we urge all Republicans to vote next Tuesday for the following incumbents who have served them loyally and well:

W. E. EVANS,	X
CONGRESSMAN
FRANK G. MARTIN,	X
ASSEMBLYMAN
RAY RILEY,	X
STATE CONTROLLER
H. G. CATTELL,	X
BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

Also we call attention to the fact that Al S. Myers, Business Manager of Sierra Madre, is a candidate for Supervisor in this District. He has fully demonstrated his ability to acceptably fill this office by economically and efficiently directing our city affairs and we firmly believe that there is great need of such ability in the handling of the county's business.

AL S. MYERS,	X
SUPERVISOR

It being the duty of every good citizen to vote, this Committee is doing its part by providing transportation to the polls on election day for those who desire it.

Doubtlessly, you incorrigible urchin should be properly impressed and utterly crushed by the cool and chilling gaze of Mrs. Sylvester Van De Smythe. Sir Reginald Wigglecoddle would be reduced to a frozen statue by such a frigid and haughty stare, but not this young urchin!

Many a trusting housewife has felt that proper chilling of foods in storage is all that is necessary. Distressing has been her rude awakening, for chilling is but the first step in correct refrigeration. May we expostulate on genuine ICE refrigeration and why it, and it alone, offers every element of scientific refrigeration?

Foods in storage must be given 3-way air-conditioning if they are to be properly preserved. Ice refrigeration first chills, then it purifies by a constantly moving cycle of air passing over the ice.

It also balances the humidity of the air. Anything less than 3-way protection is inadequate. No substitute for ice refrigeration can do more than "chill." Only ice refrigeration can remove gases, odors and other impurities. Only in ice refrigeration can proper humidity (or moisture in the air) be maintained by circulation of pure air, taking moisture from the melting ice and eliminating gases and odors which "taint" the food.

It's positively the talk of Los Angeles. Embodies a new principal of refrigeration that thoroughly chills the air, humidifies it and saves one-third to one-half the ice. Another amazing feature—you can make your own ice cubes in 5 minutes—hundreds can be made if needed—direct from the cake of clear, sparkling ice by using the simple Coolerator Ice Cutter. See the glorious new model Coolerator Ice Refrigerator. Ask for beautifully colored folder showing the new models finished in Dulux, the permanent hard white finish that resists hammer blows.
